TriCity Family Services Announces Two New Board Members

GENEVA, IL (May 23, 2017) – TriCity Family Services, Kane County’s leading provider of counseling and other mental health services, is pleased to announce the appointment of two new members to its Board of Directors.

Joining the Board of Directors are William J. Connell and Veronique Doebeli Saxe. Their appointment was made known at the May 22 Board meeting.

Bill Connell is the chief financial officer for Duchossois Capital Management (DCM) Chicago, managing financial and administrative processes and information systems. He also serves as vice president and controller of The Duchossois Group (TDG), where he is responsible for its financial reporting and analysis, strategic planning and internal audit activities.

Prior to joining TDG, Connell was a finance executive with McMaster-Carr Supply Company, a privately-held distributor of industrial supplies, where he established and managed an internal audit department for McMaster-Carr and subsequently assumed the role of corporate controller. Connell also served as CFO of Dovenmuehle Mortgage, Inc., the nation’s largest provider of outsource mortgage servicing. He began his career at Ernst & Young in its audit department. Connell earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Illinois and holds an MBA from Northwestern University. He is a certified public accountant and a certified fraud examiner.

Noting its strong reputation in the area, Connell is interested in drawing on his professional experience to contribute his expertise to TriCity Family Services. He and his wife have four children and live in St. Charles. In his spare time, Connell enjoys boating in Wisconsin or locally on the Fox River, as well as running, having completed three marathons between 2013 and 2015.

Veronique Doebeli Saxe was born and raised in Geneva, Switzerland, where she completed her Baccalaureate diploma. She received her Bachelor of Science in Management (with an MIS minor) from the University of South Florida, after which she relocated to the Chicago area. Her professional experience with IBM and AT&T include executive and leadership positions in sales and marketing, as well as international project management and customer service. Currently, Saxe is a senior consultant with nVision Consulting Group, Inc., where she specializes in marketing and sales strategy.

In 2010, Saxe co-founded an all-volunteer, non-profit organization, Rebuilding Haiti Now, to provide reconstruction assistance to schools in Haiti. To date, eight schools have been rebuilt. In addition, she is an active member in her church where she serves on the missions committee, overseeing funds allocation for programs in the United States and abroad.
